

1. The English word "gospel" is derived from the Anglo-Saxon phrase " _____," which literally means "the word of God."
2. The New Testament Greek word for gospel is _____, which means "to proclaim good news" and gives us our English word "evangelism."
3. Over half the time the word "gospel" appears in the New Testament, it is used as a(n) _____ rather than a noun.
4. The poem adapted by Leroy Brownlow challenges readers by focusing on the "Gospel According to _____."
5. Paul identified three qualities in the Thessalonians that proved God's sovereign choice: a faith that worked, a _____ that loved, and a hope that endured.
6. The Greek word for "work" in Paul's description of the Thessalonians' faith is _____, which refers to a deed, achievement, or function.
7. A work of faith is an action representative of the transforming power of _____ (or being "born again").
8. John Calvin, the father of the Presbyterian Church, wrote a thick theological volume entitled The _____.
9. William Carey, known as the father of the modern _____ movement, stood up in London to implore churches to send workers to India.
10. When Paul preached, he identified four operating forces: the words of the gospel, the power of the gospel, the moving of the Holy Spirit, and a deep sense of _____.
11. Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as the Paraclete, a Greek term meaning " _____."
12. True conviction of sin is brought about solely by the _____, rather than by scary or sad stories.
13. Criticizing the idea that we can witness solely through lifestyle without words, the text compares that attitude to saying, "Feed the hungry; if necessary use _____."
14. The text describes the power of the _____ as the single greatest force on planet earth, even greater than nuclear missiles.

15. C.S. Lewis wrote that "_____ is God's megaphone to awake a sleeping world."
16. The New York Herald hired the famous British explorer _____ to travel into the depths of Africa and find Dr. David Livingstone.
17. Stanley's conversion was prompted by observing Livingstone's character—including his piety, _____, zeal, and earnestness—over a period of four months and four days.

Answer Key

1. God spell
2. euaggelizo
3. verb
4. You
5. labor
6. ergon
7. regeneration
8. Institutes of the Christian Religion
9. missions
10. conviction
11. one who is called alongside
12. Holy Spirit
13. food
14. gospel
15. Suffering
16. Henry Stanley
17. gentleness